Ollie Vetter

August 10, 1926 to March 5, 2019

Ollie, 92, recently a resident of Wenatchee, Washington, passed away peacefully at Central Washington Hospital from complications of pneumonia. Ollie was born in Brown's Valley, Minnesota and was raised in South Dakota. She graduated from the Barton Nursing School in 1946. In 1948, she married Les Vetter, a World War II veteran, she first met as a patient. They were married for 52 years until his death and they raised four children together. She lived in various parts of the country following her husband's career as a DeKalb salesman and manager while working as a registered nurse herself. She had traveled to 49 of the 50 States before returning with her husband to retire in Milbank, South Dakota. She lived in town at RiverWest Assisted Living for the last five years. She is survived by her sons, Michael Vetter and his fiancé, Karen Husar, and Bill Vetter and his wife, Elaine La Pointe; and by her daughters, Kathy Gleason and her husband, George Gleason, and Pat Vetter and her husband, Marshall Brown. She is also survived by six grandchildren, six great grandchildren, and various other relatives, mostly in the mid-west. She was preceded in death by her husband, her sister, Laura Nater, and her brother, Ralph Boyd.

Funeral services will be provided by Jones & Jones - Betts. This spring, her urn will be placed along side her beloved husband in Mount Hope Cemetery in Watertown, South Dakota followed by a quiet graveside service and a celebration of her life with family and relatives in Watertown.
