Steven James Barham-Nokes

June 30, 1966 - August 29, 2019

Steve was a dedicated registered nurse for over 30 years, an avid board game enthusiast and found relaxation painting miniature fantasy figures. He enjoyed spending time with his friends and family, especially sharing his favored games. He was an exceptionally devoted husband and son, incredible father, loyal friend and consummate educator. He obtained his Bachelor's of Science in Nursing, and was proud to be able to expand and share his knowledge with others.

Originally from England, he made the USA his home and became a citizen of the United States.

He moved to Wenatchee, WA in 2015 and found his place at Central Washington Hospital in the Special Care Nursery. His expertise was neonatal nursing and education, and he dedicated his entire adult life to caring for others, especially the most vulnerable.

“ I am proud to call him brother. I was there when he took his oath of allegiance to the United States of America. He was very patient teaching anyone to play his card or board games especially his mother in law, Eva Keen. I am expressing her love for Steve also. We will love and miss him forever.
