“ Growing up next door (back then it was next door by a 1/2 mile or so) was wonderful and Al & June kept all the neighbor hood kids busy. To me Al was a gentle giant, with a smile and wonderful whistle. He seemed to always have a smile on his face, well sometimes when we messed up it was turned upside down, but soon it would turn right side up. I remember him milking the cows, working in the orchard and in the winter showing us how to pack down the big hill so we could sled and ski. Wonderful times. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the kids, he was a wonderful man.
