

Albert L. Martin

February 15, 1935 - February 18, 2018

Albert L Martin, 83, of Wenatchee Washington, passed away on Feb. 18, 2018.

The funeral service will be held at 10:00 A.M. on March 10, 2018 at Sage Hills Church. Jim Harbour will be officiating at The Sage Hills Church at 1601 5th St. in Wenatchee Washington.

Albert was born in Litchfield Illinois on February 15, 1935 to the parents of Allen Henry Martin, and Clara (Pettijohn) Martin.

He graduated from Davis High School of Yakima Washington in 1953 and furthered his education at YVCC. He continued his education at the Montana School of mines where he was honored a Bachelor of Science in Mining Engineering Degree.

Albert pursued his carrier and worked for The Bureau of Land Management for 25 years. He then retired from the Bureau to pursue his interest and dream in the agricultural industry and became an orchardist at the age of 50.

Albert was married to the love of his life, Marge on June 18, 1962. They were married for 55 (devoted and loving) years.

He was actively involved as a member of the Board of Directors for The Skookum Fruit Company, as he was for The Bluebird Fruit Company From 1987 – 2012.

His church home was Sage Hills Church in Wenatchee.

Albert is survived by his Wife Marge. His four sons and spouse's, Chris of Colville Wa. David and Sandy of Wenatchee Wa. Lewis and Roseanne of Nine Mile Falls Wa. James and Tracie of Colbert Wa. Seven Grandchildren, Three Great Grandchildren, Sister Dorothy, Sister Mary and Brother Dennis and many other family and friends.

Albert is preceded in death by his Father Allen, Mother Clara, Brother Harold, and Sister Jeanne.

Albert was blessed with people of the community, and his co-workers in the working field of the Bureau of Land Management. His orchard employees for many years were like family, as were all the many people and friends of the agricultural industry, Board members and Staff.

Albert was a passionate man that loved his family very much.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be given to the American Heart Association, Saint Judes hospital, and Sage Hills Church.
