

Alma D Isaacs

October 13, 1926 - March 12, 2012

Alma D. Isaacs (lovingly known as Dee) passed away Monday, March 12, 2012, at her home in East Wenatchee, WA, surrounded by her family. Dee was born in Stratford, OK on October 13, 1926, to Willie and Lexie Henry. As a young child, she moved to Texas, where she met and married the love of her life, Roy Isaacs in Clarendon, TX on December 2, 1948. They returned to Wenatchee following their wedding, where they raised their four children, Jim, Jackie, Patty and Bob. Dee worked in the fruit industry for many years, where she met many of her dear friends. Hobbies she enjoyed with her husband, Roy, were gardening and spending time at their cabin on Blewett Pass that they built. Dee was one of 12 children growing up in Oklahoma and Texas and was preceded in death by ten of her siblings; her parents; and her beloved husband, Roy. She is survived by son, Jim (Nikki) Isaacs of Silver Springs, NV; her daughters, Jackie Shiflett and Patty Isaacs, both of Peshastin, WA; and son, Bob (Marga Lea) Isaacs of East Wenatchee, WA; numerous grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and great-great-grandchildren; and sister, Irene Smith of Oklahoma. The family would like to thank Hospice of Wenatchee for the very special care they gave to Dee. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." ~ Author Unknown.
