

Amy C. Snedaker

December 8, 1915 - March 27, 2019

Amy (Miller) Snedaker passed away March 27, 2019. She was born December 8, 1915 in Pateros, WA to J. Clyde Miller and Eudora (Adams) Miller. Amy had fond memories of her childhood even though times were hard. Her mother grew a huge garden to feed the family. Her father built many of the lookout towers in the Methow Valley and worked as a cook for the fire crews. Amy had great fun learning to swim in the irrigation ditch behind her home. Eventually, she advanced to swimming in the Methow River with her siblings and friends.

Amy graduated from Pateros High School in 1935, then married Harold Snedaker in 1938. They lived many places in Washington, Kansas and Arizona, before finally settling in Colville, WA. Amy was a devoted stay-at-home mother to her children Robert and Alice. When Harold's health failed, Amy worked for many years in the cafeteria of the Eye and Ear Hospital in Wenatchee. She remained a faithful servant of the Lord throughout her life, attending Church services up to her 100th birthday. She loved to sing and knew all of the church hymns by heart.

Amy is survived by her children Robert and Alice, her loving sister Margaret Taylor, and her grandchildren Christine Neuffer, Lee Snedaker, Kathleen Raines, Mary Ann Bacon, and Wendy Yarber. She was blessed with 11 great grandchildren, one great-great grandchild, and many neices and nephews.

She was succeeded in death by her parents, husband, sister Lucille Earle, brothers Les Miller, Stanley Miller, and Earl Miller.

A celebration of life will be held at 11:30 am on June 29, 2019 at the King's Orchard Church of Christ, 1610 Orchard Ave. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.
