“ My husband Don and I have known Anita for many years. I first met her at the hospital when Hank was there and my mom was there and we met in the hallway and became fast friends..She was one of the sweetest ladies that I have ever met. She was going thru a rough time with Hank and I even got to meet DooDah their cute dog. We became members of the senior center and was glad to meet her there and listen to her sing with the Wenatchee Valley Senior Center singers...what a beautiful voice she had. It is hard to let her go, but we know she was geting very tired and we like to think that Hank and her are together again and we will see her again. We loved her very much

“ Hank and Anita Schroder - what wonderful friends! - In 1972 - they were older, we were younger, 22 and 18, (barely), and didn't know much, but we did know these were true blue people. So- it made perfect sense to us - we asked them to be witnesses at our wedding at the courthouse. I think some might have hesitated, but they agreed, and we were friends every since. On the way back from the courthouse to a wedding dinner at the Schober's, we were sitting in the backseat, holding hands, and Hank and Anita in the front, Hank driving. Anita turned around in the seat, and looked us both in the eye. She said, "One thing I want you both to promise me - every morning, when you wake up, say "Good Morning!" to each other." She had a determined glint in her eye, and we promised, and Hank kept on driving. Every anniversary since, Anita has sent us an anniversary card. Many years have passed, and the more we knew them the more we loved them. Good bye, Anita, we'll miss you, and every year we'll be reminded, and miss your card. Thanks for all you did for a couple of kids.
