Barbara "Jimmie" Barrett

Barbara "Jimmie" Barrett, 98, passed away on Saturday, March 26, 2011 in East Wenatchee.

Jimmie was born Barbara Geraldine Sickman on October 18, 1912 in Roseburg, Oregon. She liked school and graduated third highest in her High School class in Coos Bay, Oregon 1930. She always had a radiant smile and a clever wit, and she was pictured in a North A Bend Newspaper in 1936 as a "Loretta Young Look Alike".

She was married to Harry Nelson for 37 years and they had two children. After Harry passed away, she married Harold Barrett and they had a good life for 23 years. Unfortunately her husbands and her children preceded her in death. Her children were Jon Nelson and Margo Flynn, and they were well known in the Wenatchee area.

Jimmie loved playing golf, crossword puzzles, reading, and painting. She worked as an office manager/secretary for a Stevedore Company in Coos Bay, Oregon, for Seattle Doors Company in Seattle, Washington and for Canlis Restaurant in Seattle, Washington. She was honored for her volunteer efforts at Our House in Wenatchee, and was awarded the Paul Harris Fellow Award from Rotary International for her help and support in Guatemala.

Jimmie is survived by her two grandsons, Rocky Flynn and Dan Flynn, and eight great-grand children all from Wenatchee. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ *Special Jimmy,
Thank you for touching my life in a special way. I will forever remember the twinkle in your eyes, the music in your heart, and all the fun times we shared together through the years. Your gift of friendship will forever be a treasure in my heart. I will remember you with love.*
