Bernadine Lola Murphey-Dodd

Wenatchee, WA

Bernadine Lola Murphey-Dodd was born in Riverton, NE on June 7, 1913, to Daisy (Bell) Cline and Fred Murphey. She passed from this life on May 9, 2010. She had three older brothers, Clarence, Virgil and Murf, as well as five other younger brothers, Chester, James, Lyle Leon, Fred Jr. and Robert. Her older brother, Clarence, passed away in 1921, at age 16, and her baby brother, Lyle Leon, passed away in 1923, at the young age of four months. On March 26, 1934, Bernadine married a lifelong friend, Roy R. Dodd, in Lexington, NE. When Bernadine sat down to write of her life, she spoke little of herself and persistently wrote about her family and friends, whose lives touched her. Even in her 90's, she was constantly caring for those around her. If she was here today, one thing that she would share with us is, "What will be we cannot stop, so forget it and enjoy life as much as possible." She is survived by three children, Eugene Dodd and his wife, Diane of East Wenatchee, Karen Racus and her husband, Arden of Wenatchee, WA and Roy Duane and his wife, Sandy of Soap Lake, WA. Currently, she has quite a following of offspring, including ten grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and 13 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Roy, in 1988.
