“ To call her my Grandmother would never be a complete description nor offer tribute to the wonderful woman that cared for me as if I was her daughter. From child to adult she was always there for me. Never judging but simply offering love, support and encouragement. The word fun had to be somewhere in her name- because it certainly was in her spirit..
She tried to make the best of every situation, if it meant making tents inside of blankets and pillows or camping outdoors on the deck to sharing a gallon of strawberry ice cream. I can honestly say that we traveled the world together. Flying from Va to Egypt or Holland- we tightly held each others hand, took a deep breath, closed our eyes and were off on one of our best adventures. I was blessed to have such a strong, beautiful and adventurous woman that felt more like a Mother than a Grandmother. Although she definitely was GRAND, in every sense of the word.
I like, many miss her daily and am soothed in the knowing that I will meet her again with my Great Grandmother in Heaven.
Love you Oceans and Oceans..XOXO
