

Beverly Joy Town

February 6, 1948 - July 1, 2012

Beverly Joy Town passed away peacefully on July 1, 2012, in her home, with her family by her side, after a long and courageous battle with cancer. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother and will be remembered for her kindness and great sense of humor. Nicknamed by her granddaughter, she was lovingly known as "Susie" to those who knew her best. She was born to Ray and Mary Clark in Ephrata, WA on February 6, 1948. Bev graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1966. She married Bill Town in 1971, and they later settled in the Wenatchee Valley to work and raise a family. After working in accounts receivable in the fruit industry for over 29 years, she spent her last good months doing a job she cherished, baby-sitting her young grandson. She is survived by her husband, Bill Town; mother, Mary Clark; sister, Dorothy Mehl; daughters, Lori (Dennis) Troxler and Lisa (Rick) McKeever; and the grandchildren who kept her going, Sydney Troxler, Tyson McKeever and Andie Joy McKeever.

The family wishes to send many thanks to Dr. Malhi, the nurses at the Infusion department and the staff from Home Health and Hospice. We are so grateful for your care through this process. And a special thanks to Terri. Your compassion is a blessing to your profession.
