

Bonnie J. Southcott

October 5, 1940 - February 23, 2016

Bonnie Jean Southcott, age 75, died at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee, Washington, on February 23, 2016. The cause was uterine cancer.

Born to Earl and Esther McMurray on October 5, 1940, in Auburn, Washington, she lived most of her life in Seattle, Washington before heading “east of the mountains” and settling in Chelan, Washington. She worked for several of the local businesses in Chelan and became a well known figure in the community, along with her handicapped son Michael.

Survivors include her children, Tammy Peterson, Marcy Scott, Ken Southcott, and Micheal Southcott. Bonnie is also survived by her siblings, Donald McMurray, Joy Lee, Faith McMurray, Yvonne Haas, and David McMurray.

For friends and family who wish to make contributions to memorial expenses, please mail checks to: Ken Southcott, 111 NW 6th Street, Renton, WA 98057 - on the memo line write: “Bonnie’s memorial.”

Services will be held at 1 p.m., Saturday, March 12, 2016 at Riverwalk Church, 204 E. Okanogan Ave, Chelan, WA 98816. Friends and relatives are welcome to attend the service and stay for light refreshments afterwards. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones – Betts Funeral Home.

Previous Events

Service

MAR 12. 1:00 PM (PT)

Riverwalk Church , Chelan
204 E Okanogan Ave
Chelan, WA

Tribute Wall

LR

“ I met Bonnie at a particularly difficult time in my life. It was during a conversation that she spoke something into my life, which was like stabilizing arms that reached out to hold me steady until I could pass through that hard time. I doubt I would be where I am today without her God-ordained words. How I will miss her.

Linda Rau - March 06, 2016 at 03:53 PM

EA

“ 8 files added to the album Bonnie Southcott

Elinor Alexander - March 03, 2016 at 11:09 AM

EA

“ 7 files added to the tribute wall

Elinor Alexander - March 03, 2016 at 11:05 AM