

Brian Dean Rowland

November 24, 1956 - July 14, 2014

Brian Dean Rowland, 57, of Wenatchee, passed away on Monday, July 14, 2014.

Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

TO

“ My deepest condolences to Brian's friends and family. We had classes together in high school, including Driver's Ed, P.E., Health. Always a fun guy to be around. A strong athlete, outstanding football and baseball player. Somewhere around 2007 or so he came to work for OASIS, where I have worked for many years. He was there a very short time, we caught up on a few things. He talked of having worked in Russia, and a few other things I can't recall. I never saw him again. When we graduated, he would have made my short list for "most likely to succeed". I devoutly hope his last years were happy ones, he brought a lot of laughter in a life cut short before it's time. Rest in peace.

-----
tim ogard - July 16, 2014 at 12:18 AM

CC

I remember Brian, from whe I was dating Lyle...they were always joking around and having a good time, especially when it was football game day! Really nice guy. I am so sorry to hear of his passing, way too young. My thought and prayers to Brian's family and friends. Cathy Combe

-----
Cathy Combe - July 16, 2014 at 05:19 PM

 Paul Stuhley

*I was really sad to here of Brian's passing. Yet I have not seen him for more that 30 years. With the current pictures posted. It seems like was yesterday.
I lived with Brian and Keith Beaty in a house Brian purchase in 1980 in West Seattle just off of Delridge and lived there for over a year. We had some good times in that house while I was working at Boeing.
So Gods speed buddy and my deepest condolences to Brian family.
paul stuhley*

-----
Paul Stuhley - July 16, 2014 at 07:39 PM

TO

Good to know. Thanks Paul. I'll get in touch with Keith Beaty. We did some baseball coaching together with our sons and became good friends. I'm sure he will want to know.

---

Tim Ogard - July 17, 2014 at 03:58 PM