“ Sending condolences to all who will miss dear Carolyn. I'm an Anglican pastor working in Newfoundland and long ago she was my colleague in the Covenant players. Both of us served in Europe for a time. We reconnected through social media and followed each other's ups and downs. Such a beautiful soul, so loving, gracious and adventurous. Until we meet again dear Carolyn.

“ Forever. We'll be tossing pinecone and halos at St. Peter. A part of my heart went with you. Until again! That "mystery date" ha ha ha when we meet again.
