“ For the Family of Chuck Lohr

I was just talking with my aunt last week about Chuck and wondering what ever became of him. Well now I know he is being taken care of. A memory that I have of Chuck is when he operated the gas station in Dryden. I remember being a little girl probably about 7 or 8 and we would always get gas there and Chuck would wash our windows. This was always fun because we (my sisters and I) would push our faces or feet on the window and Chuck being the good sport he was would play along and try to wash our faces or feet away scrubbing extra hard on those spots. This is a fond childhood memory that I have and he made the trips to the gas station a little more fun!

“ Why didn't anyone call my family? Instead we had to find out in the newspaper. Thats pretty sad. All I know is I loved "my poppy" very much and that was the name me (laura lohr) my sister lisa and brother michael gave him. I will miss my grandfather very much and am extremely sad that I was never contacted. I love you poppy. You are in a much better place now.
