

Cindy K. Goudge

July 25, 1961 - November 20, 2014

On November 20, 2014, the Lord took Cindy Kaye Goudge home after a sudden battle of pancreatic cancer that metastasized into the liver. She was born to Jerry Keith Goudge (passed July 2012) and Barbara Jean Rieken (passed Mother's Day 2000). Cindy was born in Spokane, WA on July 25, 1961. She was the youngest of four children born to Jerry and Barbara, including her brother, Mark H. Goudge, and sisters, Carolyn Lynn and Janeen Lee. The family moved to Bountiful, UT, and then Salt Lake City, UT, where Cindy was raised in the Latter Day Saints 1st Ward in Sandy, UT and baptized at age eight. Cindy was married to Wayne Sherman Postlethwait in August 1975, later giving birth to Jesse Lee Postlethwait on December 15, 1980. They were divorced February 15, 1983. Cindy later had two other children, Tony Gutierrez Jr. born May 21, 1984, and Kristle Ann Gutierrez born August 30, 1985, by her second husband, Tony Gutierrez; she married him September 15 1985, and they divorced October 22, 1987. Cindy found Blake D. Caldwell and married him December 19, 1988, until October 2010. Cindy had an accident in January 1990, which disabled her. After being in a hospital bed for a year, she then had to re-learn to sit up and stand up, although with assistance. Cindy went to Wenatchee Valley College and earned an Associates Technical Science Degree in Accounting with Honors in June 2002, and she opened up her own business, called Caldwell Tax Service, in 2002 until 2009, when physically she could no longer function. Most of Cindy's life was spent in pain. The Lord has come to take her home and she is whole now and not in pain.
