“ I heard about Mr. Crawford's death through a friend a few years back. I still live by the elementary school where he used to be my principal. (I am an adult now). I always remember, despite being in perhaps first or second grade, gathering outside with my dad and brother, along with many other families, chanting, "Mr. Crawford on the roof! Mr. Crawford on the roof!" as he camped on top of the roof for fundraising. He was a great guy and always knew how to make people laugh. I did not even know him that well, but he made an unmovable impression on my life permanently.
