January 5, 1989 - February 15, 2012

January 5, 1989 ~ February 15, 2012

Cristobal Mora, 23, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away February 15, 2012. Born January 5, 1989, in Auburn, WA, Cris was the son of Juanita and Miguel Mora. He was the youngest of five children. Words are not enough to describe who and what Cris was to everyone.

Cris, an aspiring tattoo artist, used his innovative and creative ideas to express his individuality through his music, art and fashion. He co-founded 'The Basement', a D.I.Y. music venue inside his home that hosted many bands, both local and from around the country. The Basement provided a place for people of all ages to see live music, and inspired others to start bands and help create a music scene. Cris crossed many paths in this lifetime. Along every path he crossed, he left a long-lasting impression that we will hold close to our hearts. Our lives are better because of his individuality, warm spirit, art, and music-Abstract Rabbit. After years of playing music, Cris was able to play his biggest show in Seattle last November-a moment he was so proud of.

He is survived by his mother, Juanita Mora; brothers, Luis and Gabriel Mora; sisters, Alma Zepeda and Silvia Dicus Mora; nieces, Ayla, Monica, Ezri and Amelia; nephews, Emiliano, Mikael and Rhys. He was preceded by his father, Miguel Mora.

A Memorial Service will be held at Noon, Sunday, February 26, 2012, at the Mora residence, 544 Methow Street, Wenatchee, to celebrate his life, music and art. The Mora family has been overwhelmed by warm wishes and community support to celebrate the life of our son, brother, and friend. Donations may be made to: <http://www.gofundme.com/f9wb8>.
