Dale Kenneth Sim

May 31, 1945 - March 10, 2017

Wenatchee, WA

Dale Kenneth Sim, age 71, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away on March 10, 2017.

Dale was born in Oliver, British Columbia, Canada on May 31, 1945. He graduated from Mount Si High School in Snoqualmie, WA, and attended college in Oregon. Dale served his country for three years during the Vietnam War and was a decorated soldier. Dale and Colleen Nickell Sim were married on February 22,

1975, and in a loving marriage for 42 years. The family lived in North Bend, WA, while working and raising their two children. Dale worked most of his career in the construction trade. At one point, he owned his business, Valley Excavating, working with a power company in Bellevue. Later in his career, he worked at Fury Construction as a superintendent. His most recent employer was Gray & Osborne, Inc., an engineering firm out of Yakima, WA. Dale traveled to many jobs in north central Washington. Dale's hobbies were golfing, fishing and hunting. He truly enjoyed being outdoors with his buddies and his family, spending time on the Oregon Coast and all over Washington State.

Dale is survived by his wife, Colleen Sim; son, Jeffrey Sim; brother, William Sim; and granddaughter, Brooklyn Ross. Also, nieces: Candice Rider, Shelly Sim, Sandy Browning, Angela Osterhaus, and Amy Mendez; and nephew, Grant Sim.

Dale was preceded in death by father, William Allen Sim; mother, Catherine Sim; brother, Dennis Sim; and daughter, Constance Kaye.

A Memorial will be held Saturday, March 25, 2017, at 1:00 p.m. at Jones & Jones - Betts Memorial Chapel. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones - Betts Funeral Home.

“ The first time I met Dale he reminded me of a big teddy bear with an even bigger heart!
I will miss his hugs and genuine smile!
I could see his great joy and love he had for his family and friends.

I will miss our talks and his stories of Hunting, Vegas and his beloved family!!
Oh ya and how bad the Seahawks were sucking! lol
Can't wait to see him again and I'm sure he'll have more stories to tell! xo
