“ My condolences go out to all of Darlene's family. I met her at Western Saddlerock Adult Family Home when my dad lived there too. If Darlene was in her room, I'd always go say hi to her and visit a little. Many times I'd be visiting my dad while they were eating dinner and I'd sit at the table with them. Darlene was always fun to talk and laugh with. I remember how she loved artichokes and showed me how you eat them. My dad was at the home about six months before her and didn't talk much to others while eating. In fact, it was pretty quiet till Darlene came along. She was very nice and outgoing and got my dad, and others, to open up and get into some good conversations. My dad really liked her. I visited her at her next two homes and the last time was a month or so ago in Malaga when I brought my new chihuahua puppy to show her. She was so happy that I brought him by to show her and she enjoyed holding him.

I'm glad I got to know Darlene and I will really miss her. May God be with and comfort all her family and friends.
