

David C. Borges

May 13, 1955 - May 1, 2026

David C. Borges, 70, of Wenatchee passed away suddenly on May 1, 2026. He was born on May 13, 1955, in Hollister, CA and lived there most of his early years. He graduated from Hollister High and attended LeTourneau College in Longview, TX where he met his wife, Suzanne Franklin Borges of Milton, FL.

David and Suzanne married in Florida in November 1975 and last fall celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. He is survived by Suzanne; their two adult children: Daniel "Danny" D. Borges of Vancouver, WA and Kathleen "Katie" S. Borges, who lives with her parents and her paternal grandmother, Donna J. Landon, in Wenatchee.

The Borges lived in northwest Florida for 39 years. In 2015, they sold their home and retired to Wenatchee. The son of the late John A. Borges of Shady Cove, OR and Donna Holder Landon, now of Wenatchee, David was a retired Florida residential contractor and custom woodworker. His Wenatchee home was the last house he built and customized.

Also surviving David are his brother, Tom (Sue) Borges of Arizona; niece Rebekah Borges Glass and nephew Tom (Angela) Borges Jr. and their children; several cousins on the West Coast and in Texas, and one remaining uncle, Joe Borges.

David enjoyed golf, oldies rock, tennis, woodworking, and Bible study. A quiet and modest man, David loved the Lord deeply and unreservedly. He served as an elder and Bible teacher in Saddlerock Church in Wenatchee.

A service for him is scheduled for 2 pm on Saturday, May 16, at Saddlerock Church on Miller Street in Wenatchee with a reception to follow.

Arrangements by Jones & Jones - Betts Funeral Home.
