“ Debbie was a very loving and gracious woman who spread joy and goodwill to everyone she met. She always had a kind word and smile. Her courage and strength during her cancer battle was incredible as was her determination to fight the battle with dignity and as a role model for others also afflicted with this deadly disease.

I have fond memories of spending summer days by their pool. I remember visiting them at the time of Princess Diana's death.

Debbie is now in the loving arms of our savior and is no longer in pain. Isn't that what we all want for ourselves and our loved ones. My prayer and thoughts go out to all who loved Debbie. May God hold you in the palm of his hand and guide you through the difficult times ahead as you go through the grieving process.

“ I am Debbie and Randy's dog groomer and have known them for over ten years. I saw Debbie 2 days before Christmas. We had a very nice talk that day, she was excited for Christmas because she said both her girls would be home. Family was very important to her. She was a beautiful glorious person and I will miss her very much. My sympathies are with her family during this difficult time.

*With deepest condolences,

“ My deepest sympathies to Debbie's family. I worked with Debbie 20 years ago before moving back to North Dakota. Before I moved, Debbie and Randy came to Cashmere and she gave me a Precious Moments figurine that is still displayed in my china cabinet to this day. I have thought of Debbie many times over the years as she left quite an impression.

“Dear Loved Ones,

On behalf of my siblings (Mary, Nancy, Tom, and Kate) I wish to extend our sympathy on the loss of Debbie, our first cousin. Our parents, Everett and Joan Kampa, of Arcadia, Wisconsin, have both passed away, but maybe you remember hearing of them. Debbie attended our Dad's funeral in April 2006; we were so pleased to be able to reconnect with her at that time, even for a short time, and in less than happy times.

Please know that your family is on our prayer lists.

With love,
