

Dennis T. Schott

September 7, 1949 - February 25, 2019

Dennis Thomas Schott, 69, passed away suddenly on February 25th 2019 from an undiagnosed heart condition. Born in Wenatchee, WA on September 7th 1949, he was the son of Frederick John Schott and Jeanett Elizabeth (Reeves) Schott. He graduated from East Wenatchee High School in 1968. From there he entered the work force and was a mechanic at several different shops. He eventually gave that up and pursued a great career with the Department of fish and wild life. He greatly enjoyed being outdoors rearing salmon, steelhead and other various species of fish. He retired from the WDFW and hung up his waders to pursue his other great interests.

Dennis always had a great love of the outdoors that he shared with his kids and grandkids. He was always up for a trip up to the mountains whether it was for hunting, fishing, mushroom hunting, or just a site seeing trip to see the spring flowers in bloom. He loved spending time with his grandkids whenever possible, it could be a simple birthday party or just an afternoon with them. He was married to Phyllis Ingle in 1970. He then married Cheryl Hein in 1979. Then he married Sandy (Baird) Schott on November 30th 2007 his long time sweetheart from many years before.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his grandparents and his daughter Tammy Schott.

He is survived by his wife Sandy, Son Jerry Schott, son Kelly Schott (Patty), Grandchildren Brittany, Tyler, Chyanne, and Kacee. His brothers and sisters Tim, Pat, Fred, Corey, Robin, Chris, Bill, Lisa, Peggy and their spouses.
