

Derek M. Gill

December 31, 1953 - December 2, 2015

Derek Michael Gill passed away early in the morning on Wednesday December 2nd, 2015 in Wenatchee, Washington.

Derek was born to Donna and Dwight C. Gill on December 31st, 1953 in Wenatchee. He lived in Wenatchee his whole life. Growing up he participated in the Boy Scouts of America in which he earned honors as an Eagle Scout. He also enjoyed fishing, hunting, spending time at the family cabin, and played drums in a band in high school. Derek graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1972 and attended Wenatchee Valley College. He worked at Alcoa, Dodge, Prairie Market, and Watson Distributing. In 1980, he started his own Janitorial business called Valley West Janitorial which was very successful. Besides running his business, he had a great love for cars, especially mustangs.

Derek is survived by his three children, daughters Erika Botts (Andrew Botts), Monika Gill, and son Dustin Gill. He is also survived by two grandchildren, Olivia Gill and Hunter Botts, and his sister Vicki Langendorf (Bill Lagendorf) and brother Dwight "Skip" Gill (Kris). He is preceded in death by his parents, Donna and Dwight C. Gill.

A celebration of life is to be held at a later date in late spring/early summer 2016. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones – Betts Funeral Home.
