“ I miss her and my papa (Walter Sr) more than I can even express in words. I'm completely heartbroken because to rub salt in the wound of loosing you my father Walter Jr and my stepmother, Deanne, made it so I have absolutely nothing to remember the either of them by. They are lying and saying they don't have the items my grandmother left for me in her will, when I know they have them because they never trusted me enough to hold on to them and not loose them so much Deanne held on to them tucked away in her closet and her jewelry box and they NEVER gave them to me, not once. I'm now 23 with nothing of my grandparents to remember them by. It was never money so that was never a motive for me, it was a Norman Rockwell painted plate, a locket I got for my grandma as a kid that says grandma on it, a rosery of hers and I gold tooth she wanted to be melted down into a wedding ring for me, I also happen to be engaged to be married. I honestly would love to have the locket and something of my papa's, I'd love a t shirt of his or something. They also never told me my papa was in the hospital for weeks before he died and they didn't even tell me he died, my cousin Paige called me on Thanksgiving after she heard from a different family member. I also live hundreds of miles away from the cemetery they're buried in. I also never heard anything about a funeral from any body so i never got to go, if they even had one. My father and step mother ruined the family and cut every body off, for any reason, if you did anything they didn't like, or they made up reasons and heavily manipulated things from my point of view. I'm sure they'll see this eventually and I don't even care.

“ Dear Walter,

Ernst and I are sending our deepest condolences to you and your family. I will miss Dolores terribly and it will be very hard for me not to be able to pick up the phone and visit with Dolores as I have done over the last many years since moving away from Washington state. Dolores always had time for me and was so wonderful even when she was not feeling well. She never let that get in the way; she always would say it is so nice to hear your voice! I am blessed that I had a chance to chat with Dolores only a couple of weeks ago. We lost a very very dear friend. Dolores may you rest in peace!
