

Doris M Bokma

January 11, 1924 - March 8, 2011

Doris Margaret Bokma, 87, a 16 year resident of the Wenatchee Valley, passed away at Central Washington Hospital on March 8, 2011, of heart failure. She was born on January 11, 1924, at Stapleton, Nebraska, the daughter of Albert and Maude Catterson. She spent her growing up years moving around and graduated from high school in Cozad, Nebraska in 1943. Doris then moved to Jerome, Idaho and married Howard Fattig August 1946. They moved around following jobs but eventually ended up back in Jerome, Idaho. Howard passed away in February 1985. Doris then met Sam Bokma in the winter of 1990 and were married on June 8, 1991, in Jerome, Idaho. They then moved to Vancouver, Washington where they resided for 3 years. Sam retired from being an electrician, so they moved to Entiat, Washington to be closer to family. They stayed in Entiat until 1997, then moved to East Wenatchee, where she resided at the time of her death. Doris was a homemaker and loved to paint and to work in her garden. She loved working in the garden with Sam attending to their beautiful flowers.

Doris is survived by her husband, Sam Bokma of East Wenatchee; one sister, Lila Watson of Twin Falls, Idaho, one brother Russell (Norma) Catterson of Twin Falls, Idaho, four step children, Stephen (Val) Bokma of Hillsboro, Oregon, Dennis (Evy) Bokma of Wendell, Idaho, Joan (Paul) Horner and Alan (Lori) Bokma all of East Wenatchee. She also leaves behind nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on Friday, March 18,2011, at 2:00 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church, 1400 S. Miller, Wenatchee, with Pat McElroy and Paul Pankey officiating. The family suggests remembrances be sent to Tall Timber Ranch c/o First Presbyterian Church 1400 S. Miller, Wenatchee, WA. 98801
