Dorothy Lavina Blackmore, 89, of Wenatchee, WA, caught the 3 o'clock bus to Heaven on Monday, September 20, 2010. She was born in Denver, CO on December 1, 1920, accompanied by her twin brother, Joseph, and weighing in at 2 pounds, 3 ounces. She enjoyed visiting with family and friends and making sure her home was always in perfect order. Dorothy was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend and dedicated her life to the service of others in caring for family members, neighbors, friends and many stray dogs and cats in their times of need. She also spent many years serving her patients as a Nurse's Aide at William B. Ririe Hospital in East Ely, NV.

Dorothy is survived by a daughter, Ruth of Anthony, KS; son, Joe of Wenatchee; four loving grandchildren, Julie, Hilary, Tom and Scott; and nine great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bob; and grandson, Tim; in addition to her parents, William and Ada; and her brothers, Norman, George and twin brother, Joseph, who passed away shortly after birth.

“ All at Colonial Vista Care Center miss Dorothy. She was a wonderful neighbor with smiles for all. She often attended Friday's Amazing Grace Bible Class that I have the prevelige of teaching. I want to publically thank Dorothy's family for allowing Colonial Vista the opportunity to know and love her. I'm looking forward to meeting with her family and celebrating her life at Saturday's memorial service.
