“ You were such a beautiful soul. With a beautiful voice too. I admired how happy go lucky you always were. Every time we came to see you, you always had a big smile on and were so tickled. Miss your lipstick kisses on our cheeks. Sometimes I would forget for awhile and notice later that evening, wondering if anyone had seen me with lipstick kisses on my cheek. Perry still talks about you daily and still reminds everyone that you were such a lovely lady. We miss you Dot. Love us
