DeDe was a charter member of Marcia McBride Orthopedic Guild-Beta Sigma Phi, a literacy tutor, a docent for Gallery 76, and also volunteered as a pink lady at NCW Hospital. She volunteered at her church, First United Methodist.

“ How I loved my time in Apple Blossom royalty with DeDe! So many incredible memories of her and Clarence. She had the biggest heart and shared so many wonderful words of wisdom with me, a young 18 year old girl, ready to go out and experience the world. DeDe was a very special part of my life in 1974. I shall treasure those memories forever and hold them close to my heart.
