“ First off my condolences to Doug's family. He was a kind heart. My husband Doug whom Doug called pork chop and my husband called him cupcake was hilarious. During apple harvest we ran into Doug many times and I always had a great visit with him. It also brought me great pleasure in seeing our old bitterroot truck on the road making money for him. He helped me get back to Omak after I had to get out of town with poor planning on getting back up to Omak. He was a great guy and we talked many times getting up to Waterville to visit and meet Linda but never made it. RIP Doug. Him and my husband are at peace now in God's loving arms. God Bless til we all meet again.

“ Doug and I grew up together in Manhattan, he had a challenging youth. But prevailed and became a wonderful man and father, husband too I am sure. Lost touch when we grew up. Then discovered he and I had moved to the same area in Washington. Was nice to reconnect with him. R.I.P Dougie

“ Doug was a regular at BJ's Truck stop when I worked there. He was a great guy to talk to & had a great sense of humor, & loved to poke fun at us (and we would return the fun) Doug will be missed.
