“ My dear Eddie, I hope from heaven you can read my note to you. You were more than my cousin.....you were my best friend. I am devastated and heartbroken, I miss you so much. We were supposed to grow old together, remember? I would give anything to get an email from you saying “I’ll call you tonight.” My days were so happy when I knew I would talk to you in the evening. We were so fortunate to have the phone and email which allowed us to become close despite the miles between us. I feel lost without you in the here and now, and I pray that one day in heaven we will be together and will be able to talk as often as we want, for as long as we want. Know that I always was proud of you and proud that we were family. You were so special to me. I love you always and forever, Joey

“ I was an old friend of Eddie's back in the 80's. Lost touch with her through the years. When I read that she passed,I couldn't believe it. She was so young. My memories sure circled in my thoughts of the times we had as friends. She was such a kind person. So giving and funny. Eddie even though we lost touch,I hope you are at peace. Your saying to me was "peanut Butter" Love you Mary Shemaria

“ My name is Amy Thofson-Rush but Eddie called me Amers," Eddie was married to my dad, Greg. I remember my friends coming to the house & Eddie and I would be goofy. We would share each other's clothes, do each other hair and make-up, and we thought we were so funny cracking jokes with each other (usually at my dad's expense.) Eddie would help me plan the coolest birthday parties & year end school parties. She even convinced my dad to let me have my first boy/ girl party. Although it has been many years since I have seen her, I will never forget the sound of her contagious laugh. And whenever I called her & my dad from my mom's house, Eddie she would always say "I love ya kiddo." She really had a very good heart. I know she will be missed but certainly not forgotten. RIP Eddie.....you are home with your mom & dad.
