“ I have so many memories of Elizabeth! She was a true and dear friend. I loved the time we spent having sleep overs at her house, swimming and playing. The first time I ever ate cold spaghetti for breakfas was at her house. :) I love her dearly and will forever remember her sweet spirit. Be healed in God's love my beautiful friend.

So thankful I could be involved with the girls as they attended Eastmont Jr High! May Elizabeth be at peace in her heavenly home where we will be reunited! “ Elizabeth was a wonderful and talented woman. I enjoyed visiting with her and her parents when I visited them in Wenatchee. One thing I really remember about her was the Wild Buggy Ride she had at our farm in Wildrose, ND. It was something she never wanted to talk about. She will be missed but know that there are many relatives and friends that are saying prayers for her and her family. God Bless You Elizabeth

If Elizabeth ever had a memory it was on our farm in Wildrose, ND.. She went for a Wild Buggy ride. She never forgot it and would not talk about it when we brought the subject up. The Zanol family always had fun coming to our farm. They even came to our daughters wedding in their motor home. It rained so everything was mud. We had fun anyway.
