“ Elizabeth was a wonderful addition to my life when we met a few years ago. Always fun and feisty when we spoke and I loved her laugh! I was fortunate to spend an afternoon with her in November and share a few more hours of her company, what a lovely soul.

“ I have been one of Elizabeth's clients for twenty years. She has been a consummate professional throughout, but also so much more than that. We had the best phone conversations ever, full of hilarity and merry spirits. I always regretted that we weren't next door neighbors, so I could walk over and invite her out to eat things neither of us should ever touch.

I never met Elizabeth face to face, but I will miss her always. My condolences to her family and friends.

“ I only knew Elizabeth as tax preparer but she was clear, confident, and encouraging in a here is what we can do kind of way. With that she got me through tax anxiety again and again. Frankly I loved the sound of her voice; it sparkled with energy. I had no idea of her age or her life or that she was ill and that is the epitome of professional. I will miss her very much.
