

Elmer E. Walcker

February 28, 1929 - July 5, 2018

Elmer Eugene Walcker 89, a resident of Chelan, WA died in Wenatchee, July 5th, 2018 after a short illness.

Elmer was born in Turtle Lake, North Dakota to Sophia Heinle Walcker and John J. Walcker on February 28, 1929. Early in life his family moved to Startup, Washington.

A graduate of Sultan High School. He married Stella C. Ness on February 12, 1949. Elmer worked for the Great Northern Railroad starting on the section and working his way to Engineer.

In the late 60's he started his own building business, Walcker Enterprises, later to be called Walcker Homes, which he ran with his two sons for many years in the Lynnwood, WA area.

In the mid 80's he and his wife Stella moved to Chelan, WA and took over management and ownership of the then Caravel Hotel.

A prankster in his adolescents' Elmer would be known through the years for his sense of humor and his generosity.

His wife Stella C. Walcker followed him in death, September 20, 2018

He is survived by son John Walcker and his wife Sue Walcker, son Dennis Walcker and daughter Kristina Powers and her husband Cameron Powers, 4 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

There will be a joint memorial gathering for Elmer and Stella at 1:00 October 13th, 2018 at

Grandview On the Lake, 322 W. Woodin Ave, Chelan, WA 98816

Previous Events

Celebration of Life Service

OCT 13. 1:00 PM (PT)

Grandview On the Lake
332 W. Woodin Ave
Chelan, WA 98816