

Elnor "Elly" Rayburn-Bell

May 12, 1928 - April 21, 2017

Elly Rayburn-Bell, 88, passed away on Friday, April 21st at Harbor View Medical Center. She was preceded in death by her first husband, Glenn Rayburn of 60 years. They raised their 4 children in Southern California. And eventually moved north to Kennewick, Wa. After retirement they enjoyed the quiet, peaceful life of Thompson Falls, Mt. And after the passing of her husband, Glenn, she moved to Wenatchee, Wa to be close to her family. And this is where she connected with the Wenatchee First Assembly of God Church and made new friends at the Senior Center, where she had lunch most days. This is also where she found love again for the second time in her life. She married Loy Bell in July of 2016. She truly loved her home in Malaga and couldn't wait to ride the golf cart through the orchards. Elly truly loved all her family, and celebrating holidays and gatherings with them all. She was a special lady who touched all that met her and will be terribly missed by all that knew "Miss Elly".

She was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn Rayburn. her son Gary, son in law Joe, and great grand daughter Maddy.

She is survived by her son Gordon & Bonny Rayburn of Utah, Daughter Gail Richards of Leavenworth & son Gregg Rayburn of Spokane.

And her step children Wanda Maxon (Pete), Loy D. Bell(Kim), Donnie Bell, Carla Davis(Randy) and many, many grand children and great grand children.

The memorial service will be held at Wenatchee First Assembly Church on Saturday May 13th from 2-4pm
