“ I'm so sorry, I hadn't heard of your Mother's passing. She, Bud, & my Dad (Bill DeWeert) were friends while Bud & Dad worked for the highway department. I have wonderful memories of visits to the orchard and the homestead house Ester made so warm & comfortable. I always hoped to go back and visit before they sold the place. She was a very special person, and I know she was deeply loved. Please let Bud and the boys know they are in my heart.

With love, Pam DeWeert Cameron

“ Dear Dick, Ron, Jeff and all the extended Brender family:
We are so very sorry for the loss of your wonderful mother. Esther was an inspiration to us with her heartfelt personality and kind expression she gave us at "her" farm. We will always be indebted to her for those beautiful flower gardens in Brender Canyon and the charm of her and Bud's lovely house and wise direction. Thank you for sharing her with us the past few years. We will miss her. Please know her good karma and happy aura will live on in that canyon forever.

With love,

Julie & Ludger Szmania and our sons
