

Ethel Marian Magnus

November 22, 1914 - December 5, 2011

Ethel Marian Magnus was born November 22, 1914, in Beaulieu, North Dakota. She quietly passed away December 5th, 2011, at the home of her son and daughter-in-law in Cashmere, WA at the age of 97. Her family was by her side.

Ethel spent her childhood in a rural farming community with a close-knit family of seven siblings. On March 23, 1934, she married Edwin Julius Magnus in Mona, North Dakota. In November 1935, they moved to Easton, Washington where their only son, Donald Edwin Magnus, was born on April 28, 1938. Ethel was preceded in death by her parents, William and Clara Montpetit, husband Edwin Magnus and siblings Bernice Taylor, Beatrice Linders and Lillian Hatch. She is survived by her son Donald and wife Luann of Cashmere, WA, granddaughter Susanne Sortor and husband John of Wenatchee, WA, grandson Jon Magnus of Cashmere, WA, great grandchildren Gavin and Alexis Sortor of Wenatchee, WA and Leyna Sortor Ellensburg, WA, brother William Montpetit and sister Alice Murr, of Wenatchee, WA, sister Myrtle Gislason of Wasilla, Alaska, and sister Hazel Vardaro of Chesapeake, VA, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

We will remember Ethel Magnus for her twinkling eyes, quick wit, listening ear and kind heart. Her example of unconditional love is an inspiration to all those whose lives she deeply touched. Ethel was a dedicated Christian who lived out her beliefs and was faithful to the end. Though she will be greatly missed, her family and friends find comfort in the many memories they have of happy times together and the peace of knowing she has finished her course with honor.

Funeral services for Ethel Magnus will be held at 11:00 a.m. (not 10:00 as printed in the Wenatchee World on Wednesday) at Jones and Jones-Betts Funeral Home in Wenatchee.

“ I loved my auntie Ethel so much. She was very funny and also extremely nurturing just like my grandma Bea. I love you both and miss you so much!
