

Evelyn Carrie Conley

August 31, 1913 - April 30, 2010

Evelyn Carrie Trapp Conley passed away March 30, 2010. Ev was born in Orondo, Washington to Clyde L. and Lena Sonney Trapp. Ev had 1 sister Edith Sheets and 2 brothers Lowell and C. Landon Trapp. She attended Orondo School and Wenatchee High School. On February 26, 1930, she married Robert E. Conley in Brewster, Washington. Ev had 3 children; her daughter Jeanne Hanan (Darrell) and sons Richard Conley (Pat) and Robert Dale Conley (Emily). She is preceded in death by her parents, her siblings, her husband and her son Dick.

Ev or “Granny” as she was widely known has 7 grandchildren: Janet Lovelin, Jerry Hanan, Bob Hanan, Mike Conley, Gary Conley, Robin Brown, and Andrew Conley. She has 14 great-grandchildren and 8 great-great-grandchildren. Grannys extended family also included many members of the community. With her open door policy she enjoyed many close friendships. Although to numerous to list, the family does recognize all the people Granny was blessed to have in her life, but would like to express their gratitude to Georgia Ashworth for her unselfish compassion and care.

Ev was a member of the Orondo Ladies Club, Orondo Community Church, Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile and Jolly Circle. She always loved the orchards and was an accomplished picker, sorter and packer. She was an avid bowler, enjoyed working in her yard, growing a garden and loved canning the fruits of her labor.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Jones & Jones-Betts funeral home. A viewing is scheduled for Thursday, May 6th from 4 - 7p.m., with a graveside service Friday, May 7th, 10 a.m. at the Orondo Cemetery. Following the service will be a lunch at the Orondo Community Church.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to Orondo Community Church. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com.
