

Faye Peterson

August 18, 1929 - November 17, 2023

Faye Peterson, a lifelong resident of Wenatchee, WA, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on the evening of Friday, November 17, 2023. She was born on August 25, 1929, to Perry and Mina Carper. She worked in the fruit packing industry for many years in the valley. She met her husband, Jesse Peterson, at the Wenatchee Roller Skating Rink while he was stationed at Larson Air Force Base in Moses Lake, WA. They moved to Texas while Jesse finished his service in the Air Force before settling back in Wenatchee.

Faye was a member of the First Baptist Church in Wenatchee for most of her adult life and enjoyed serving her church by teaching Sunday school, working in the kitchen at church summer camp, and working in the church library.

Spending time with her family was important to her. She enjoyed camping with her husband, kids, and grandkids over the years. She also enjoyed trips on the motorcycle and an occasional round of golf at Leavenworth Golf Course with her husband. Her family enjoyed her baking and family meals together. Her apple pie was always a family favorite!

Faye was preceded in death by her husband, Jesse Peterson; her parents, Perry and Mina Carper; her two brothers, Darrel and Derald; and her sister, Opal. Survivors include her son, Gary Peterson, and daughter, Beverly Seals, both of East Wenatchee. She also leaves behind grandchildren, Carrie, Teri,

Jason, Mystie, Jessica, Travis, and Gavin. She had 11 great-grandchildren and 2 great-great grandchildren.
