

Frances Ann Mahar

January 23, 1936 - November 18, 2018

Frances Ann Mahar, 82, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away following several years with Alzheimers. Fran was born in Spokane, WA, to Ervin and Lucile Mayer. She attended Holy Names Academy and graduated Sacred Heart School of Nursing. She married Jerry Mahar. She worked as a school nurse for the Wenatchee Schools for 29 years. She was a member of the Holy Apostle Church and was involved in the Catholic Daughters, Saint Anne's Guild, and Delta Kappa Gamma. Fran enjoyed hiking the Cascades and fall colors at Stehekin, WA. She was a Seahawks and Gonzaga basketball fan. Fran enjoyed reading, daily walks, and cross-country skiing. She enjoyed doing activities with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Fran was preceded in death by her husband; her brother, Jim Mayer; and her parents. Fran is survived by her children: Debra (Richard) Siler and Tim Mahar; grandchildren: Adam (Kim) Siler and Kristine (Mat) Johnson; great-grandchildren: Dallas and Parker; and brothers and sisters: Joe (Joyce) Mayer, Bob Mayer, Linda Mayer, and Jack (Julie) Mayer.

Her family wishes to extend our sincere thanks to Stillwaters Cottages of Spokane Valley, and her sister, Linda, for the care and love they provided Fran during the past three years. Memorials may be given to the National Alzheimers Organization (alz.org) in Fran's name.

Funeral Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Monday, December 10, 2018, at Holy Apostles Catholic Church, 1315 NE 8th St, East Wenatchee, WA. Burial will follow at the Wenatchee City Cemetery.
