Frances Elaine Munro

June 8, 1957 - April 4, 2015

Frances rose to greet her Lord on a bright and sunny Easter morning after an extended illness.

Frances attended St. Joseph's Elementary School until the family moved north of Orondo, then attended Waterville Grade School and Eastmont High School. She graduated with honors with a BS in accounting and then a MBA in Tax from Central Washington University.

Frances loved adventure, learning, riding with the wind in her hair, and all animals in need. She grew up on a ranch in Orondo where she kept both her lazy horse, Beauty and then her Quarter horse colt, Delli. After long days in the saddle Frances won Reserve Grand Champion in equestrian events at the NCW regional fair. She was then off to volunteer extensively for the Peace Corp where she learned housing construction before settling down to master her higher education. She worked as principal in her own accounting practice until debilitated, then moved home to Eastern Washington to be near her family.

She was preceded in death by her father, Henry D. Munro. Surviving loved ones include Vallena B Munro, her mother; Henry Michael Munro, her brother;

Susan Towne and Deborah Ortis, her sisters; numerous cousins, nieces and nephews, and Janet Rathe & family, her best friends.

A Catholic Mass will be held at 9 a.m. on Saturday, May 9, 2015 at Holy Apostles Catholic Church in East Wenatchee. A reception for family and friends will follow Mass at the home of Vallena Munro at # 16 Munro Drive Orondo, WA until 4 p.m.
