

Francis Scott "Scotty" Key Jr.

April 22, 1927 - December 13, 2013

Francis Scott "Scotty" Key, Jr. 86, of Wenatchee, passed away on Friday, December 13, 2013.

He was a lifetime Wenatchee resident and he worked for NAPA for 35 years, retiring in 1989.

Survivors include his son, Francis Scott Key, III of Auburn, WA.; his daughters, Carol Highfill of Wenatchee and Patricia Ryals of Oak Harbor, WA.: two grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Family gathering will be held at a later date.

Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ I made chocolate chip cookies last night and all I could think of was Scotty saying that they were his favorite.....just like his mom made. His loss brings me great sadness but I'm also glad I got the chance to be a small part of his life. marge

Marge Harrington - December 17, 2013 at 10:46 AM