G. Craig English

August 31, 1943 – September 11, 2015

Craig English, born in Wenatchee, passed away at his home in East Wenatchee WA after a short illness. Craig graduated from Wenatchee High School, was honorably discharged from the U.S. Army and graduated from the University of Washington. He retired from the Washington State Department of Revenue in Olympia as Regional Manager after 30 years of service, when he returned to the Wenatchee area. His interests included the support of animal rights, health and safety, traveling, golf and University of Washington Husky football.

He and his wife were snowbirds, flying south to their winter home in Arizona every year, which he particularly enjoyed. He was known for his wry sense of humor, keen sense of loyalty and meaningful friendships.

Craig is preceded in death by his parents, Fred and Julie English. He is survived by his wife Roxie, daughter Nicole and grandchildren Amari, Garrett and Nicholas

(Tallahassee FL),
aunt Patty Oberg (Kirkland), and cousins David Oberg, Margaret France, Nancy Knight (all of Kirkland), Ann Torkelson (South Bend), Bev Jagla (East Wenatchee), Denny
English
(Kennewick), and Betty Kay England (California), as well as his beloved cat, Duffy. Craig was very dear to the hearts of his family and will be sorely missed.
At the request of the deceased there will be no service. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbett.com.
Arrangements are by Jones & Jones-Betts Funeral Home.
