“ Holly, My heart grieves for you. Next time I head in your direction, maybe we can get together. I still retell several stories of Gage and his funny come backs to you when he was younger and you lived in Pateros. There was never a question you would raise a remarkable young man as your love and dedication to him abounded and was evident to all who knew you both. Sending hugs and much love your way, and may God comfort you always.

“ I know Gage through eyes of his Auntie. Great stories of silliness & love! When I met him for the first time I went in for a hug because I felt close to him through all the stories I had heard. Until we meet again Gage ... And brace yourself for another hug! My prayers are with you...his close family & friends.

“ Holly, some of my fondest memories are spending summer time with you and Gage when we were younger. He was so much fun to be around and so kind. I remember us building things, drawing, playing video games, and playing outside. So much fun! He grew into an amazing young man, and I will forever hold those memories within my heart! We love you and Gage very much!

“ I only knew Gage for a couple of years in art class during high school, but it was enough to know what a kind person he was. I'm certain he will be missed. This was a fun memory Meaghan and I had with Gage painting an enormous, silly Dr. Seuss mural.

“ Served along side you in both Garisson and Combat. you were a true inspiration to those around you. light hearted, carefree, but mostly loyal, trustworthy and an all around great person. You will truly be missed by everyone that had the pleasure of knowing you, noatter how brief the time. RIP brother. Until Valhalla.....

“ He had the baddest paintball gun that day! You were lucky to be on his team because he did this often!

“ Gage was my first friend in life. We grew up together and stayed close friends even after he moved away, always making sure to catch up when ever we could and to keep up with each other's families. He was an amazing young man that many were proud of in so many different ways. He was talented, smart, funny, strong, kind, goofy, and best of all a true person. He loved his family and friends. He went above and beyond in every thing he ever did. He was an adrenaline junkie and video game dork. He was my best friend. There are so many memories that I couldn't share them all even if I wanted to. I will miss you forever and love you for always Gage.
