“ I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Gail was always sweet with me while growing up and I love her for that. She always had a beautiful smile for me and when uncle Nate would get me going she would smooth it out. She was just pleasant to be around and I have nothing but good memories of her. She was the oldest and as such she also helped to raise the rest and dad always spoke with loving words about her to me.

With Love, Steve

Thinking of Aunt Gail's family as I write this. I will always remember her tender care of my Dad in his last days. She was a great comfort to him and a great help to our family. She was as sweet as her high school photos suggest. Rest in Peace.
