“ My sympathies to Gary's family. I knew Gary many, many years ago while he attended school in Bellevue. Even then, it was easy to see Gary as someone very special and I have thought of him often throughout the years. It comes as no surprise to hear his friends refer to his generous friendship, strength of character, kind spirit, and loving family. Kuddos for doing it right, Gary.

“ Kim, Jake, Kristy and family - our hearts are just breaking for you all. As I sit here and write this I am looking around at our beautiful home that Gary didn't physically build, but that he designed in every way since it is essentially a Ferderer home. (You know don't you, Kim?) Not a day goes by that I don't thank God for the blessings of living here, especially when it is full of our kids and their friends laughing, hanging out and having fun. Gary has left his legacy behind in so many ways and I hope it gives you comfort that we are reminded of your family often. We will do whatever we can to help you through this seemingly impossible loss. We are thankful for your great faith and keep strong. We love you to pieces!
