“ I enjoyed getting to know my great uncle George better these past few years. I was happy to see my grandma Juanita (his sister) and him together, more often. It was special!

We have Anderson reunions, every August, and I wanted to share a few pictures that I have of George, with his family. My Grandma Juanita, and her husband Troy, are also with the Lord, and it was hard to post some of these pictures (with all three of them together). However, I'm thankful that I have these memories and I will cherish these photos. It comforts me knowing that my great uncle George knew the Lord, and I know that he is in a better place, and without pain.

We loved you uncle George. May God continue to bless your family that is left behind!

May God comfort us all.
