“ I am saddened by the passing of George, a one-of-a-kind fellow. I worked with/for him at Cascadian Fruit several years ago. He always had a smile and a joke for me. I used to tease him telling him that he reminded me of Art Carney (the actor.) That made him chuckle. I am sure he will keep folks in stitches on the other side.. God's best to his family.

“ What a blessing to have known George, though for only a short time. He was a man of many talents and we enjoyed visiting with him and sharing stories of people we both knew from the Leavenworth area. We will miss him.
