

Gerald "Jerry" L. Schwab

April 28, 1937 - December 6, 2015

Gerald "Jerry" L. Schwab

Gerald "Jerry" L. Schwab, 78, passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 6, 2015 in Wenatchee, WA. He was born on April 28, 1937 in Almira, WA to Fred and Anna (Boos) Schwab. Jerry spent most of his life in Wilson Creek, WA where he farmed wheat, was a turkey butcher and also drove school buses for the Wilson Creek School District.

In 1972, he married Florence Rushton in Soap Lake, WA, and they made their home in Wilson Creek. They later retired to East Wenatchee in 1998.

Jerry was a gifted farmer and craftsman. He worked tirelessly hard but always found time to spend with family and friends. In the winter months, he enjoyed crochet and cross stitch projects that filled the homes of family and neighbors with unique designs and won awards. Holidays always brought family together where they enjoyed meals cooked with all hands helping and hours of board and card games.

He is survived by his nephew Keith (wife Leslie) Rushton of Kent, WA; grandson Cameron and granddaughter Christine; his brother-in-law Don (wife Linda) Rushton of Coulee City and cousin Bennye Rushton of Spokane, WA.

Private Interment will be held at Evergreen Memorial Park in East Wenatchee. Please express your thoughts and memories on the online guest book at jonesjonesbetts.com that will be shared with the family. Arrangements are by Jones & Jones – Betts Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

YG

“ Jerry and Florence were members of Trinity United Methodist Church in East Wenatchee. I Joined & met them in 2005. We had a Secret Pals -Jerry was mine. He made a beautiful cross stitch with flowers, bird houses, & butterflies & gave it to me Christmas 2008. It is hanging on my wall. I will always remember him and Flo. May the family be comforted in knowing that they are both together in Heaven.
Peace to you all.

Yvonne Gowell - December 11, 2015 at 12:27 PM

TG

“ So very sorry for the loss of Jerry! We were neighbors for a long time with many wonderful memories of both Jerry and Flo! We have missed them much and always will. At least they are together once again! Sending prayers to your family..you all are in our thoughts.

Tyke and Karen Gaskell

Tyke and Karen Gaskell - December 10, 2015 at 08:10 PM

DW

“ We used to be neighbors with Jerry and Florence and we miss them both. They were wonderful people. We still have hanging on our wall a beautiful cross stitch that Jerry made and it reminds me of him every time I look up and see it. He is very missed.

Danny and Jexix Whaley - December 09, 2015 at 09:50 AM