

Giuseppe "Joe" Mandoli

May 28, 1929 - May 24, 2017

Giuseppe "Joe" Mandoli passed away on May 24, 2017 at the age of 87 at Central Washington Hospital after a brief illness.

Joe is survived by his son, Joseph Mandoli Jr.; his son and daughter-in-law, Mike and April Mandoli; and his grandchildren, Josh and Katlyn. He is predeceased by his loving wife, Rose Anna Morey.

Joe was born in Lucca, Italy and moved to Canada at the age of 21 in search of work. He preceded to work in many different fields including dams, bridges, and logging. While in Canada he met Rose and they were soon married.

Together they moved to Kellogg, Idaho where they both became U.S. citizens.

Joe worked as a blacksmith at the Bunker Hill Mine in Kellogg before finally landing in Wenatchee, Washington. In 1982, Joe started at the Alcoa Aluminum Plant as a Maintenance Mechanic. He retired from Alcoa in 1995 and spent the rest of his life surrounded by friends and family. He will always be remembered as a great husband and father and will be missed by all.

Friends and family may visit Thursday, June 1st from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at Jones & Jones – Betts Funeral Home. A funeral service is scheduled for 10:30 a.m. on June 2 at Jones & Jones-Betts Memorial Chapel on Ninth Street in Wenatchee. Interment will follow at Wenatchee City Cemetery.
